Jerry Grbic

CEO of the ABBL

After studying finance in Brussels, Jerry Grbic started his career in the banking sector by joining Banque Internationale à Luxembourg in 1996. He stayed there for 12 years. He then joined Banque Degroof, where he developed the Luxembourg market. In 2012, he took over Fortuna Banque, first as director and then as managing director.

Throughout his carrier, he acquired precious insights into a large area of banking services, holding positions in trading, credit risk management, corporate banking, private banking and retail banking.

His experience and general knowledge of the banking industry made him a prime candidate to take over the CEO position of the Association of Banks and Bankers, Luxembourg (ABBL), in April 2022.
